Candidates, Primaries, and Ranked Choice Voting - AS 15.58.020(13)

Each candidate may designate the political party or political group that the candidate is registered as affiliated with. A candidate's political party or political group designation on a ballot does not imply that the candidate is nominated or endorsed by the party or political group or that the party or group approves of or associates with that candidate.

In each race, you may vote for any candidate listed. If a primary election was held for a state office, United States senator, or United States representative, the four candidates who received the most votes for the office in the primary election advanced to the general election. However, if one of the four candidates who received the most votes for an office at the primary election died, withdrew, resigned, was disqualified, or was certified as incapacitated 64 days or more before the general election, the candidate who received the fifth most votes for the office advanced to the general election.

At the general election, each candidate will be selected through a ranked-choice voting process and the candidate with the greatest number of votes will be elected. For a general election, you must rank the candidates in the numerical order of your preference, ranking as many candidates as you wish. Your second, third, and subsequent ranked choices will be counted only if the candidate you ranked first does not receive enough votes to continue on to the next round of counting, so ranking a second, third, or subsequent choice will not hurt your first-choice candidate. Your ballot will be counted regardless of whether you choose to rank one, two, or more candidates for each office, but it will not be counted if you assign the same ranking to more than one candidate for the same office.

Your vote only counts once, even if you rank a candidate more than once. When a candidate is eliminated in a round, they are eliminated from all future rounds.

RANKED CHOICE VOTING

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Round One:

The Division counts all first choices. If a candidate gets 50% + 1 vote in round one, that candidate wins and the counting stops. If not, counting goes to Round Two.

Round Two (and beyond):

The candidate with the fewest votes gets eliminated. If you voted for that candidate, your vote goes to your next choice and you still have a say in who wins.

If your first choice candidate was not eliminated, your vote stays with them. Votes are counted again.

This keeps happening in rounds until two candidates are left and the one with the most votes wins.

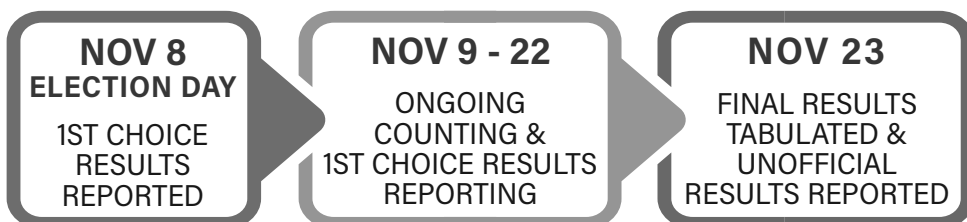

What happens if I only vote for one candidate?

Your vote is counted in round one and your vote stays with your candidate throughout tabulation.

GENERAL ELECTION COUNTING SCHEDULE

How will I know when and why my candidates were eliminated?

Results reports showing how many votes each candidate had in every round and how votes were transferred when candidates were eliminated will be available on the Division's website, in addition to a summary report showing the final votes tallied for the winning candidate.

Please visit www.elections.alaska.gov/rcv.php for more detailed information, sample ballots, explainer videos, and translated information.

Alaska's Ballot Counting System

Your Vote is Secure!

Alaska uses three different methods to count ballots:

- ❖ Hand-count
- ❖ Precinct Scanner
- ❖ Voting Tablet

Alaska's ballot tabulation system has a paper trail of every ballot cast. Each precinct receives paper ballots that are either hand-counted when the polls close or are scanned during the day as the voter inserts the ballot into the precinct scanner and the results are tabulated after the polls close. In addition, during federal elections, each precinct has a voting tablet which has a voter-verifiable paper trail.

The ballot tabulation system used in Alaska to produce and count ballots is federally certified and thoroughly tested prior to each election. It is a stand-alone system that is not connected to the internet or a network during the hours of voting.

Each precinct scanner and voting tablet, and their corresponding memory device are tested prior to the election. Two different logic and accuracy tests are performed, by two separate bi-partisan boards (the State Review Board and the Regional Counting Board) to ensure the devices are counting correctly. In addition to testing the ballot counting accuracy, before each election functionality tests are conducted on each piece of equipment to ensure each is in proper working order.

Prior to certification of the election, state law requires the State Review Board to conduct a hand count verification of random precincts that utilize precinct scanners. The randomly selected precinct must account for at least 5% of the total votes cast in each of the 40 house districts. If there is a discrepancy of more than 1% in the hand-count verification, a hand-count of all the ballots cast in the district is mandated. From implementation in 1998 to date, there has never been a discrepancy of 1% or greater.

While not required by law, the division has chosen to have the State Review Board also conduct a hand count verification on randomly selected house districts for the early voted ballots, absentee ballots, and questioned ballots with representation from each of the five regional offices.

After the State Review Board completes their audit, the election is certified and results are official. The process is intentionally slow and methodical so that accuracy is obtained. Additionally, because certain ballots can be counted on the 15th day after the general election, certification cannot be done before then.

The Alaska Division of Elections is dedicated to the security and accuracy of our election process. The Division recognizes that any election system is susceptible to fraud if security measures are not in place. Alaska has extensive procedures, including multiple layers of security that includes a combination of people, processes, and technologies that help us conduct secure, trustworthy, and accurate elections.

You MUST be prepared to show one form of identification. You may use the following ID:

- Voter ID Card
- Current and valid photo ID Card
- Birth Certificate
- Driver’s License
- Passport
- Hunting or Fishing License
- State ID Card
- Military ID Card

Alternatively, you may use an original copy of one of the following documents if it contains your name and current address:

Questioned Ballots

If your name does not appear on the precinct register or if you do not have identification, you will be required to vote a questioned ballot. Your voted ballot will be placed in a secrecy sleeve and then sealed inside a completed questioned ballot envelope. The information you provide on the outside of the questioned ballot envelope will be used to determine your voting eligibility and to update your voter registration. If for any reason your questioned ballot is not fully counted, you will be notified in writing.

Marking the Ballot

Vote by ranking candidates of your choice. You can rank as many or as few candidates as you like.

Completely fill in one oval per candidate, in each column. You do not have to rank all candidates.

If you make a mistake marking your ballot, DO NOT erase or correct the ballot. Return your ballot to an election worker and request a new ballot. Sections with eraser marks will not be counted.

Campaigning Prohibited

Campaigning is not allowed within 200 feet of any entrance to a polling place during the hours the polls are open. This includes any discussions about candidates or issues appearing on the ballot or displaying campaign items such as, but not limited to, hats, shirts, signs, bumper stickers or buttons.

Voter Assistance and Concerns

Assistance While Voting

If you need language or other assistance during the voting process, you may have a person of your choice help you. That person may not be a candidate in the election, your employer, an agent of your employer or an agent of your union. You can have help during each step of the voting process, including inside the voting booth with reading or marking the ballot. Election workers at the polling place are available to help you as well. This is your right under federal law.

Language Assistance

In areas under the Toyukak Settlement agreement, Section 203 of the Voting Rights Act, and other areas designated by the court, the Division of Elections hires bilingual outreach workers to provide language assistance to limited English speaking voters who are proficient in Alaska Native languages or Tagalog.

Before Election Day, bilingual workers make announcements, provide election information to their community and are available to provide language assistance for any voting related activity, including voter registration, absentee voting and to assist with all information in this pamphlet. On Election Day, bilingual workers will provide language assistance at the polling place with the voting process, including translating the ballot.

If you need the name of the person who is hired to provide language assistance in your community, please contact the Division of Elections. Any voter may access language assistance by calling toll free 1-866-954-8683.

Voting Tablet

On Election Day, each polling place has a voting tablet. The voting tablet is intended for the blind, disabled, and for voters who do not read well. It allows voters to vote unassisted using magnified, high contrast and audio ballots. In designated areas where there are limited English proficient voters, the voting tablet also has an audio translation of the ballot in Alaska Native Languages and Tagalog for applicable regions. Voting an audio ballot may take 15 – 20 minutes. If you need to vote using the voting tablet device, let the election board know.

Visually Impaired Voters

In addition to the voting tablet at each polling place, magnifying ballot viewers are available at all polling places and absentee voting sites. Audio recording of this pamphlet is available from the Alaska State Library, Talking Book Center, located in Juneau and on the Division of Elections website. Telephone the library at (907) 465-1315 for information.

Hearing Impaired Voters

For questions, you may contact the Division of Elections through our TTY telecommunications device by calling (907) 465-3020.

STATEMENT:

As a longtime educator, I find myself increasingly concerned for our children and young people. At a time in their lives when they should be feeling hopeful and optimistic about the opportunities that lie ahead, they see division, disrespect and intolerance in the language and behavior of local and national leaders. They see efforts to take away rights that have been fought for and respected for many years, specifically a woman's right to choose, and wonder which rights will be next. They see few efforts to curb the gun violence that steals the futures of their peers. They see unrelenting emphasis on profit-making over healing our planet.

The elected leaders of our country set the tone for our nation. As an experienced leader, I am committed to bringing honesty and responsibility back to the Senate. I am committed to modeling the behavior we must teach our children. I am committed to strengthening the democracy they deserve in their future.

STATEMENT:

I am running for the United States Senate because I do not like the way things are going in this country.

I do not like us begging other countries to send more oil. We MUST be energy independent.

I do not like all of the out-of-control government spending that threatens to crash our economy. We MUST balance the check book.

I do not like five thousand pounds of meth coming into this country across our southern border. That is two and a half tons of meth my friends. For that and many other reasons the southern border MUST be shut down.

I do not like American workers losing ground. From the North American Free Trade Agreement in 1993 to the Trans-Pacific Partnership in 2016 all these trade deals do is cut the throat of the American worker. If cars are shipped into this country cheaper than we can make them lots of people are going to lose their jobs here in America. Any trade deals MUST put America first.

The list goes on but suffice it to say we have a lot of things on our To Do list.

Hard Right Turn. It is a political statement. It is a moral statement. It is my campaign motto and it is my sole objective if elected to the United States Senate.

My name is Buzz Kelley and I am asking for your vote on Nov 8, 2022.

Thank you.

STATEMENT:
As a third-generation Alaskan who grew up in communities across the State, I understand the unique challenges we face. As your senior Senator, I’ve worked across party lines to deliver for Alaska. From authoring and negotiating the infrastructure package into law – securing historic investments in roads, bridges, ports, and rural broadband expansion – to protecting our ferries, fisheries, and caring for our veterans, Alaska is at the core of my mission, always.

From Adak to Utqiagvik, Alaska is rich with a diversity of cultures and strengthened by the self-determination vital to protecting access to our lands and resources. I continue to learn from the wisdom of the First Alaskans. Working together, we secured funding to ensure our rural communities will have clean water and sanitation systems and expanded access to broadband. Alaska’s strategic importance to our national security is second to none. I will continue securing investments to strengthen and expand our military installations, infrastructure, and defense jobs. Alaska is home to over 20,000 active-duty service members and more veterans per capita than any other state. I will continue working to improve the VA ensuring veterans receive the benefits they deserve.

As parents, Verne and I want a vibrant future for Alaska where our sons can share in opportunity, and someday raise their own families. It is the vision we all share for our children and Alaska. Join me in working together for the land and the people we love.

I respectfully ask for your vote.

Kelly's father was union electrician and Vietnam War veteran, and her mother was one of the first workers at the startup of Prudhoe Bay. Her parents were homeless for a time in the 1970s, but thanks to that oil industry job, they fought their way into the working class.

STATEMENT:

Kelly Tshibaka is an America First candidate who will always represent the views and values of Alaskans in the U.S. Senate. She will stand up for the constitutional rights of all citizens and fight against federal government overreach that intends to turn Alaska into a national park for the rest of the country.

As she travels across the state, Alaskans are telling Tshibaka that "It's time for a change," which is the central theme of her campaign. She will fight for Alaska's resource industries, which create thousands of jobs and give our children a future, yet are under assault by environmental radicals in the Biden administration and the Washington, D.C. insiders who enable them. Tshibaka will fight to revive the Alaska economy; reclaim our rights as parents, gun owners, and land owners; reform healthcare so it works for Alaskans; require equal, legal, and safe immigration; restore voting rights and integrity; and stand for the right to life for pre-born Americans.

Endorsed by President Donald Trump and the Alaska Republican Party, Kelly Tshibaka is the only choice for Alaskans who are tired of elitist politicians who cater to the D.C. insiders. When Kelly Tshibaka is in the Senate, we finally will have someone who gives voice to all those Alaskans who have felt forgotten, ignored, exploited or dishonored the past 21 years.

STATEMENT:
If we are going to successfully represent Alaska’s role in our nation to the rest of Congress, it will require someone to make what I call the business case for Alaska. I support resource development across the board, and I will never compromise on the freedoms guaranteed to each of us under the U.S. Constitution. I’m running for Congress to bring new energy and solutions to the job. I will work hard to provide the leadership and representation the people of Alaska deserve.

My top priority when elected is to create economic opportunities that unlock generational wealth for the people of our great state. To do this, we must provide a compelling case to those in Congress that Alaska’s future is a core part of our nation’s future. Whether it’s oil and gas, critical minerals, timber, fishing, or tourism, Alaska provides the nation with a wealth of resources upon which we may build a healthy and stable economy, strong families, and a generation of leadership for our state.

United States Representative

Chris Bye, Registered Libertarian

OTHER:

Chris Bye is not a politician. He is an Alaskan, a husband, a father of 4, a combat veteran, an Alaskan fishing guide, a youth soccer coach, former youth shooting coach, and an avid outdoorsman.

Chris dedicated half his life to serving this great nation, as both an enlisted soldier in the U.S. Army and later as a commissioned officer. The Army constantly pushes its officers into new and challenging duties, giving Chris an advantage when he lands in Congress. He has experienced changing professional environments and has always risen to the challenge of new situations. And retirement did not dull the desire to continue that service. He has also witnessed first-hand the devastating effects of policies made in Washington D.C., so far removed from the realities Alaskans face. It is this first-hand evidence that draws him into serving beyond the Fairbanks and Fort Wainwright community by running for Congress.

STATEMENT:

For far too long many of us have sat on the sidelines shaking our heads at the decisions made by career and groomed politicians of both parties. Typical Alaskans can make better decisions than groomed or career politicians.

He will look to all Alaskans, especially those directly affected, to help solve the problems facing us. While we may not always agree, constructive dialogue including diverse perspectives is essential to creating the best Alaska, not just for certain groups but for every Alaskan. Chris firmly believes that we ought to have representation as diverse as Alaska which is why he fully supports term limits. He wants the North Pacific Fisheries Management Council receptive to the needs of Alaskans: reduce, then eliminate bottom trawling; reduce bycatch; and include representatives from up-river communities. He wants Congress to stop shackling future generations with debt. No more Military Boondoggles. Conduct audits with punitive corrective actions for every Department and Agency within the Federal Government. Most importantly Chris supports the safe development of natural resources through environmentally sustainable processes developed and being imparted to students attending the University of Alaska system. The Federal Government retains 36 million acres of land that belongs to Alaska. That land represents future geophysicists, engineers, botanists, environmentalists, energy professionals, teachers, nurses, small businesses, families... future opportunities.

We can do better. We owe it to our children to do better. It starts by electing representatives who work for us, not for a party. Don't Settle for the Lesser of Two Evils. It's Time Alaska.

SPECIAL INTERESTS:

OTHER:
Sarah Palin is a lifelong Alaskan who moved here when she was just a few months old. Sarah raised her five children in Wasilla, where she still lives. Her son, Trig, attends Wasilla Middle School. She was “reborn” in her faith in God at age 11, while marveling at the splendor of God’s bounty in Alaska. Even after being thrust into the national spotlight in 2008, Sarah remains a true Alaskan, who will never stop fighting for the greatest state in the Union.

STATEMENT:
I’ve spent my whole career fighting against the self-serving political establishment and fighting for the interests of the hard working men and women of Alaska. I’m not afraid to stand up to my own party in order to do what’s right, and I will work tirelessly to get things done for the benefit of our state and our country. I believe in responsible development of Alaska’s God-given natural resources, defending our constitutional liberties, ending the culture of death and protecting the lives of the innocent, and securing states’ rights against an overbearing federal government. I’m a tireless advocate for our military and our veterans.

If elected, my first priority will be to help spearhead legislation promoting energy independence. Right now, gas prices across the country are skyrocketing—and Alaska can help do something about it. I will also fight to preserve and protect our right to keep and bear arms, advocate for responsible infrastructure development that leverages federal support for vital projects, and work to end government handouts to able-bodied Americans, cut through the red tape that entangles small business owners, and let the free market do what it does best—generate success for all Americans.

STATEMENT:

Responsible resource development, with local control - I support responsible resource development. Alaska's abundant natural resources have provided economic prosperity for many in our state, and will continue to do so. Decisions about where and how to harvest, drill, or mine, must reflect the priorities of people living closest to any proposed project.

Infrastructure jobs - Alaska needs critical infrastructure everywhere you look, improving airports, ferries, highways, energy grids, broadband infrastructure and more will create good paying jobs and build the foundation for economic growth for years to come.

Climate Change - We are living with the effects of climate change, where I'm from the effects are obvious. While we adapt to our changing environment, we need national leadership that prioritizes solutions as large as the problem we face.

No Pebble - The people of the Bristol Bay region have spoken out strongly against this particular mine, which would pose a risk to the greatest sockeye salmon runs in the world. In Congress, I will work to establish permanent protections for the region.

Schools - Quality schools are vital to the future of our communities. Students and teachers need support to strengthen our communities and see improved educational outcomes. I support language immersion and Alaska history education. Many of our state's languages are on the verge of extinction. I will champion resources for language revitalization efforts.

STATEMENT:

Public Safety

Public safety is my top priority. I repealed Alaska's disastrous catch-and-release program, SB 91, driving crime down 18% in the first year. We're hiring troopers at historic rates, restoring positions eliminated by the previous administration and restoring confidence in Alaska's public safety.

Strong Economy

This year we delivered on the largest PFD in history. Taking the dividend out of the hands of politicians, resisting new taxes, capping government growth, and diversifying our economy remain my top economic priorities. We must reform our education system, invest in workforce development to fill Alaska jobs, and diversify our economy. Alaska won't thrive by taxing people, taking their PFDs, and letting government spending run rampant.

Alaskan Independence

My administration is making great progress toward Alaska's food and energy independence; using new technology in energy production and transmission, including a natural gas pipeline, to lower the cost of energy for all Alaskans. The pandemic interrupted our supply chain and taught us we need to make power and feed Alaska independently. During the next term, we'll invest in our agricultural and energy opportunities to make Alaska self-sufficient.

Leadership in Crisis

Alaskans need a governor who can lead through difficult times. I've navigated Alaska through some of the biggest issues facing the state in its history – natural disasters, a pandemic, and economic hardship. However, we got back on our feet quickly, and these challenges have made us more resilient. Some talk about leadership and some demonstrate leadership — I've proven my leadership through adversity.

I am humbled to ask for your support to serve as elections. I'm committed to ensuring that they are conducted with accuracy and integrity; Alaskans must be confident in the process. Voters deserve to know that in the Last Frontier, "one person, one vote" means precisely that.

I have already started investigating ways Alaska can improve the accuracy of its voter rolls and election system. Our Division of Elections has incredible employees who take their duties seriously and have insight into changes we can make. I am also having conversations with Alaskans who have offered ways to improve the system. With good information, we can fill gaps that exist, implement best practices, and update data systems.

Thomas Jefferson said, "We in America do not have government by the majority. We have a government by the majority who participate." In our state, every participant deserves to have an ethical, dependable, and transparent election process that guarantees the integrity of every single vote. I am committed to working with Alaskans to make that happen and will be honored to earn your vote so that I can serve you and the great state of Alaska.

STATEMENT:

You deserve a better future, with better schools, job training, a living minimum wage of at least $15 an hour, and an economy that produces good jobs. People deserve the opportunity to succeed, whether born rich or poor. But over the past three years 20,000 more people have left Alaska than have moved here because they see no future.

I'm the only pro-choice candidate for Governor and will protect those rights.

Most of us have grown up with our own hardship. Mine was losing my father to a killer who broke into his office when I was six. I grew up in foster homes. But regardless of how you are born or raised, you deserve the promise of liberty and justice for all, and equal rights.

We should have a construction and community project budget that puts people to work and supports needs like renewable energy to lower energy costs and battle climate change. You deserve good road maintenance, a strong Marine Highway, and what's needed in rural and urban communities for success. We can afford that, and a stronger PFD instead of false PFD promises, by ending over $1 billion in subsidies Alaska gives to the wealthiest oil companies in the world.

I believe in protecting our fish, support responsible development, but oppose the Pebble Mine and the dumping of over 1,000 tons of dead halibut and salmon and crab by Outside factory trawlers.

I'll stand up for all of you, not just the wealthiest and most powerful.

STATEMENT:
I'm running because I want Alaskans, including my five grandchildren, to have a bright future. I have a vested interest in Alaska's future. I believe in an Alaska that looks ahead with hope. My husband, Ed, a veteran of the US Air Force, and I are fortunate that our three daughters and five grandchildren live in Alaska.

I believe building blocks of a bright future for our state include: a robust fiscal plan (including Alaskans' fair share of oil revenue), jobs providing living wages, quality public education, and assured protection of our civil rights and right to privacy.

I know quality public education is a foundational equalizer. I believe students deserve a quality public education. Alaska's students should be successful in college or vocation-technology education. Students should be able to use their skills and knowledge in the workforce and contribute to their community's economy.

I am not a typical politician. My years of advocacy and leadership experience, combined with working with legislators, brings new energy and change to status quo politics. It is time to build a better, brighter future for Alaska and Alaskans. It is time to vote, not for a party, but for commitment, integrity, and Alaska's future.

STATEMENT:
Alaska gave me everything I have, and I'm running for Governor again to do my part to get our state back on track. We can all sense the current lack of direction in our state and feel the damage caused by politicians who obtain power by dividing us. The past several years of economic crisis, outmigration, pandemic, and divisiveness have taken a toll on our economy and the overall psyche of our state.

As Independents, Heidi Drygas and I will rebuild Alaska by focusing on things that bring us together as Alaskans instead of continuing to obsess over the things that drive us apart. We are deeply committed to passing a fiscal plan that will allow us to invest in our state, rebuild our economy, and create new jobs.
We will make this happen by ensuring that we have world-class education in communities across our state — from childcare to K-12 to the University of Alaska — protecting PCE and investing in public safety, providing resources to the Alaska Marine Highway System every year, confronting bycatch, and aggressively seeking opportunities for responsible resource development and other growth areas instead of waiting for opportunities to show up. Finally, the State must do whatever it takes to reduce high energy costs that are hurting families and damaging our economy.

Heidi and I are lifelong Alaskans, and we will govern in a way that bridges divides in our state and prioritizes practical, common sense solutions above everything else.

STATEMENT:
Alaska is a land of immense opportunity. It’s why my parents came here and why I will always call this place home. We pride ourselves on our boldness, distinctiveness, and individuality. We often hear the phrase, “That may be how they do things Outside, but that’s not how we do it in Alaska.” It’s not a slight against our neighbors to the south so much as a sense of pride about our Alaskan ways.

Somewhere along the way, a significant number of our elected officials became preoccupied with the things Alaska can’t do, and they built entire political careers working to destroy important Alaskan institutions that took generations to build.

Bill Walker and I are focused on what Alaska can do. I’m running because I believe this renewed focus on our state’s potential will help create a bright future for my 4-year-old daughter, Olive, and for every Alaskan.

We can get our economy back on track and create good-paying jobs.

We can develop our workforce and attract the best and brightest from around the world by investing in education, from pre-K to our University, instead of watching our kids move Outside to find jobs and opportunities.

We can provide residents of rural and urban Alaska with a good education, public safety, and the infrastructure it takes to create opportunities.

We can balance the need to responsibly develop our natural resources while meaningfully confronting climate change.

We can embrace big, bold ideas again, and we will rebuild Alaska together.

I want to first welcome the new neighborhoods that now make up Senate District P.

Together we are Downtown Fairbanks, East Fairbanks, Badger Road, and Fort Wainwright.

I also want to thank our community of families, businesses, and soldiers for your steadfastness during these years of the pandemic.

I recognize that times are getting more difficult as many of us struggle with ongoing health concerns, product shortages, rising prices, a decreased labor market, and the ongoing stress of it all. I grew up in Fairbanks and care deeply about its well-being. I have committed my entire professional life to helping our community in whatever manner I can through bipartisan relationships and advocacy.

Despite the hardships we face, I am optimistic about the future of our town. OTHER:
I was raised in Fairbanks and attended public schools here. I am Koyukon Athabascan with deep roots in Alaska. I have been a teacher in Fairbanks for the past 21 years, and because of this, I know many of you personally. I married my husband John, a smoke jumper, 25 years ago and we have raised a family that includes two great kids. I truly care about the families of Fairbanks.

STATEMENT:
Fairbanks is my lifelong home, and I want my kids to love it too. As a classroom teacher, I have worked with hundreds of Fairbanks families. I can no longer stand by and watch our schools and our community get shortchanged by the political fighting in Juneau.

As a legislator I will be guided by one question: what is best for Fairbanks? I will take a moderate approach and work with anyone willing to deliver real solutions.

- My priorities:
- Invest in UAF as a core economic driver of our community, provide certainty for educators by forward funding education, and boost educational outcomes with universal access to Pre-K.
 - Support responsible resource development, and work to lower costs for businesses and families by supporting efforts to bring natural gas and alternative energy to Fairbanks.
 - Work to protect the Permanent Fund with strong dividends that can be maintained far into the future and provide predictability and certainty by removing the PFD from the hands of politicians.
 - Address the State’s structural deficit to avoid costs being pushed to Fairbanks property taxpayers.

Fairbanks should and can be a place where all families have access to affordable childcare without needing to worry about crippling medical bills. It should be a place where snow is removed from our roads quickly, and parks and trails are maintained as a core part of our way of life. I would consider it a great honor to be your voice in Juneau.

STATEMENT:

Due to a significant rise in oil prices plus stable earnings from the Alaska Permanent Fund, the FY2023 budget will provide funding for essential state services, fund significant capital projects, address many of our deferred maintenance needs while also paying out a PFD of approximately $3,200.

The annual budget debate strives to balance the financial needs and wants of all Alaskans. How large should the annual PFD payment be versus funding for public safety, education and road maintenance? Our state business model since 1980 has been based on the expectation that a significant volume of oil, at a budget sustainable price, will consistently flow through our pipeline year after year. But as we have experienced over the past several years, oil price volatility creates major budget uncertainty and is a financial condition we must be prepared to effectively manage. That requires fiscal discipline along with a willingness to save some of our recent financial gains through deposits into the Alaska Permanent Fund or into other state savings accounts. Essential government functions need to be identified, prioritized, and then appropriately supported. How we balance state spending to meet our essential needs and reasonable wants will remain our annual challenge now and for years to come.

My 42-year Alaska banking career, prior service on the Fairbanks Board of Education and four years of experience as a House Finance Committee member has prepared me to meet the economic challenges that Alaska will face. I would appreciate your vote on November 8th.

My name is Kelly Nash and my home has been Fairbanks for over 40 years. I was born at Ft. Ord, near Monterey Ca in 1971 where my father was a Cobra pilot and my mom was able to stay home and raise our family.

My family moved to Alaska in 1973, after graduating from West Valley in 1990, I discovered a passion for helping people and a joy in building people up through personal styling. I found my career when I entered New Concepts Beauty school. For the past 28 years I have been serving the people of Fairbanks. Since 2006 I have been a successful business owner.

I am the founder of Interior Patriots and have been fighting back against illegal mandates and tyranny.

STATEMENT:

I am fully invested in Alaska and Fairbanks and I am ready to work to build a future for the next generation of my family, and yours, that can thrive in, not just survive in. Several years ago I noticed a change in our country, state and town. I became aware of the huge impact government actions were having on small businesses and working families. When the Covid lockdowns were implemented, many Alaskans, myself included, were deemed nonessential. I knew it was time to get politically active.

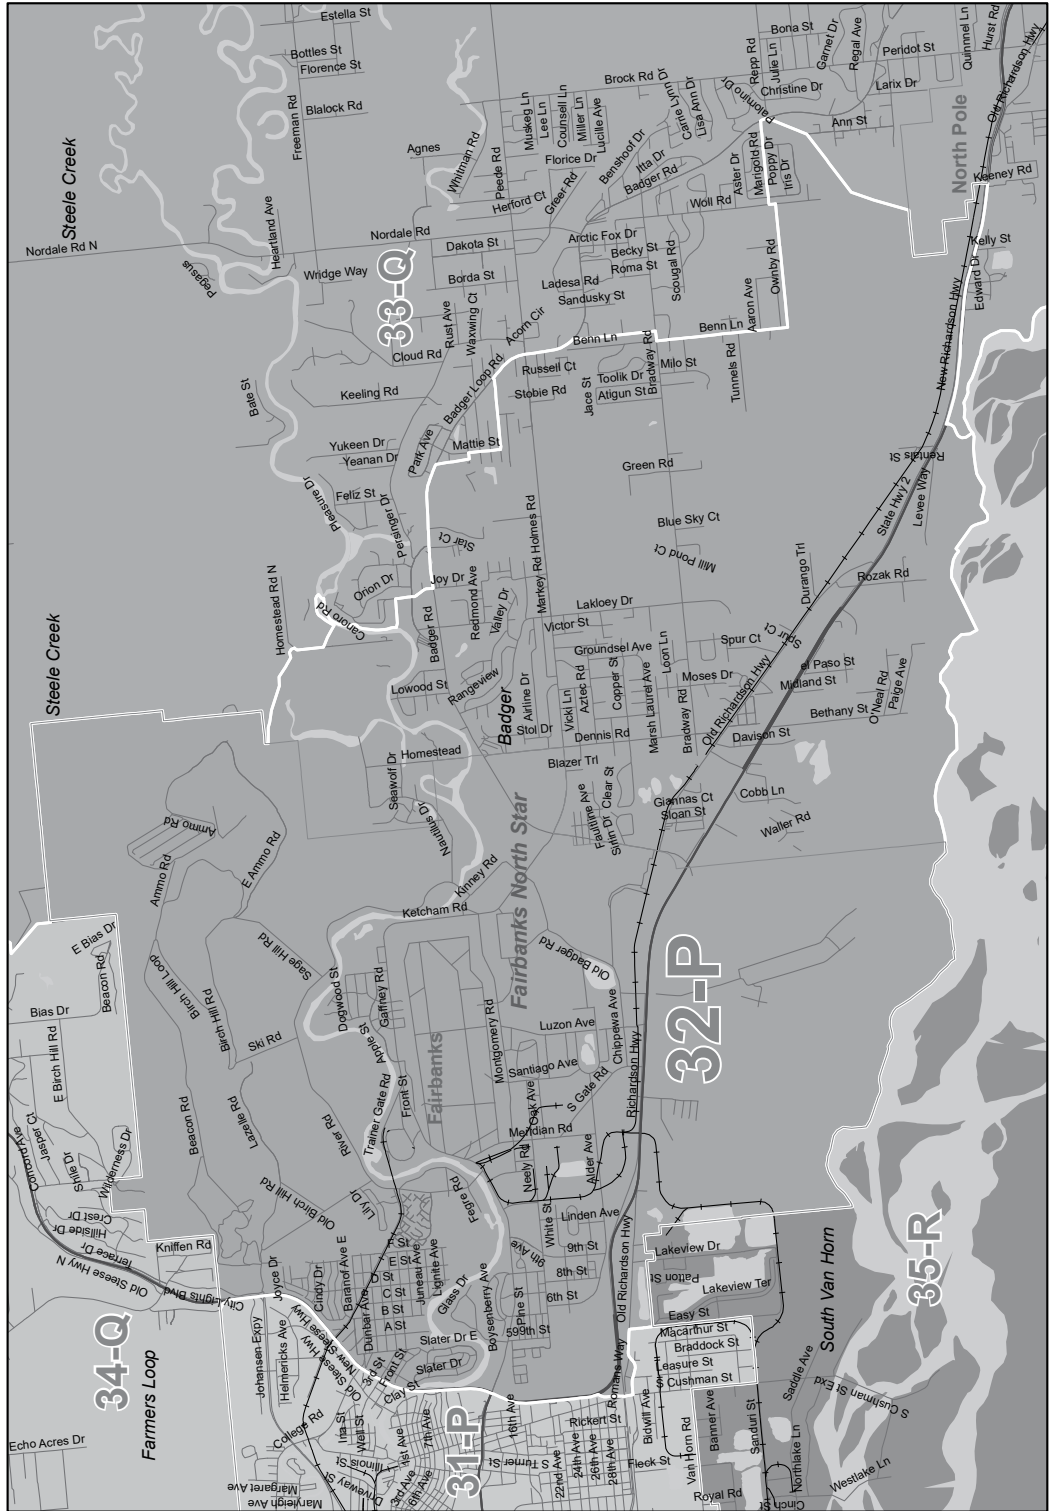

Today I am ready to go to Juneau and really represent the mainstream, everyday Alaskan. I am ready to let Juneau know that small business owners, employees and customers are the backbone of Alaskan communities and we can't be deemed non-essential ever again. In Juneau I will represent Alaskans like you, not big bankers, mega corporations, big oil or anyone else. I am ready to be your voice. I am in full support of a full PFD and backpay with interest, safe and secure elections, Pro-Life, 2A, 1A, small government. Getting rid of language that has anything to do with CRT and keeping all bathrooms and locker rooms safe for females. I stand by my word. I cannot be bought or bribed.

OTHER:

In the summer of 1975, I backpacked across Canada and into Alaska. The state made a lasting impression on me and I never got it out of my system.

STATEMENT:

Interior residents are facing some real challenges: high energy costs, bad air quality, inadequate funding for public education, low paying jobs, a lack of affordable childcare, Covid, and climate change. For us to overcome these challenges we need to elect state legislators who will look for practical solutions, not push partisan agendas. With my experience and maturity, I will be such a Legislator.

I will work to diversify our economy, which will produce better paying jobs; to increase state funding of public schools—K-12, UAF, and skilled trades; to develop renewable resources, to promote agriculture for more food security; and strengthen our partnership with our military. I will fight to get Interior residents their fair share of State resources, to have the natural gas line built near Fairbanks, to protect our right to privacy and individual freedoms, and to get fair royalties for our natural resources.

While serving on the Borough Assembly, I assisted in the revising and passing six annual budgets which reduced property taxes, funded schools, and prioritized road projects. When I served as a Commissioner on the Alaska Public Offices Commission, I heard appeals from elected officials and political candidates who were charged in violating Alaska's campaign finance laws and made advisory opinions regarding campaign finance laws. I have worked across party lines in both these roles and demonstrated my ability to put needs of our community first.

I believe in community service and I love Alaska. I would be honored to earn your vote.

OTHER:

I came to Fairbanks in 2006 after I enlisted in the U.S. Army as an Airborne Infantry soldier during the height of the Iraq war. I was stationed in Alaska at Ft. Wainwright over 15 years ago and volunteered to serve two combat tours in Iraq, one of which I was wounded and awarded the Purple Heart. Professionally, I have worked in Fairbanks as an Insurance Agent in employee benefits over the last 10 years.

STATEMENT:

I'm running for office because I believe in civic duty and public service. I enlisted in the Army as a paratrooper in the Infantry because I wanted to serve the country and fight in the war. I have been an active community member as a Rotarian for 10 years. I have volunteered at various service organizations and involved myself in local issues since I left the military. My most important job is raising a beautiful family near Badger Rd, just outside the Golden Heart City.

Inflationary pressures, high gas prices, electric rates, supply chain issues, and critical shortages in our workforce we face very difficult challenges in the Interior. I believe leaders should articulate sensible solutions to these complex problems.

I've never been a politician so I won't promise you a vote for me will fix all of these issues overnight.

However, I believe many of these issues can be alleviated with sound fiscal policy. Advocating for a long-term fiscal plan that requires elected leaders to be held accountable in spending by using private sector performance-based indicators is sensible and a good first step.

I am Pro: Business, Life, Development, Education, and Public Safety.

Above all, I am a true believer in our town and it's potential. My life experience has taught me to be an eternal optimist and I fundamentally believe that through the pursuit of sound policy, innovation, and due diligence, we can put our district on the right track.

OTHER:

I am an Army brat who moved to Alaska in 1974. I am an Alaskan who has lived the Alaskan lifestyle to the fullest. I have built cabins, mushed dogs, trapped, had to chip ice to get my water, and cut and split countless cords of wood. I have been to dozens of villages and most towns along the road system. I spent a decade working winters on the slope, and almost another decade fishing in Bristol Bay. I sport fish and dip net, hunt caribou and moose. I have found that I have something in common with most people in this district.

I am “good people”, a family man, honest and hardworking. Like many Alaskans, I am a character, with character.

STATEMENT:

I worked on the pipeline and retired from Laborer’s 942. I also worked as an emergency firefighter, drove cab, owned a set net permit and a bar, and worked in canneries. After receiving a quality education at UAF, I worked as a geologist, and then 28 years with DOT as an engineering geologist, and hydrologist. I understand how government works, and my broad work and life experience will be invaluable in Juneau.

I believe in working people. I have helped organize workers and negotiated contracts, so I know how to communicate and compromise.

Alaska needs a sustainable formula for Permanent Fund withdrawals, responsible resource development, an end to corporate subsidies, to expand and maintain its infrastructure, and make long-term commitments to educating and training Alaskans. District Q needs someone to also address the Manh Choh mine ore haul, groundwater contamination, and high energy costs.

We must define real priorities in Juneau, by making the budget the first order of business. Alaskans need an economy with a long-term plan that stabilizes the wild swings in revenue of an oil dependent government.

We keep sending the same people to Juneau and expect a different outcome. Our current elected officials have allowed partisan issues to divide us, which prevents real cooperation in addressing Alaska’s problems. Our greatest challenge is that we are competing instead of communicating, and everyone loses.

We need to help all of our residents understand current issues and how they will be impacted by the choices made in Juneau.

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:

STATEMENT:
I am humbled by the trust the voters put in me two years ago to serve in the senate. I hope that I have validated the faith of the voters by my actions the last two sessions.

The model of operations our state has been using for the last half century is failing. We are still stuck asking the same questions that we had fifty years ago. How do we grow an economy outside of oil and government? We need to get the resources of the state into the hands of the people instead of the government. We do that by putting the PFD into the constitution and instituting a meaningful spending cap. Those policies will support small business and put the power into the hands of individuals rather than a select few.

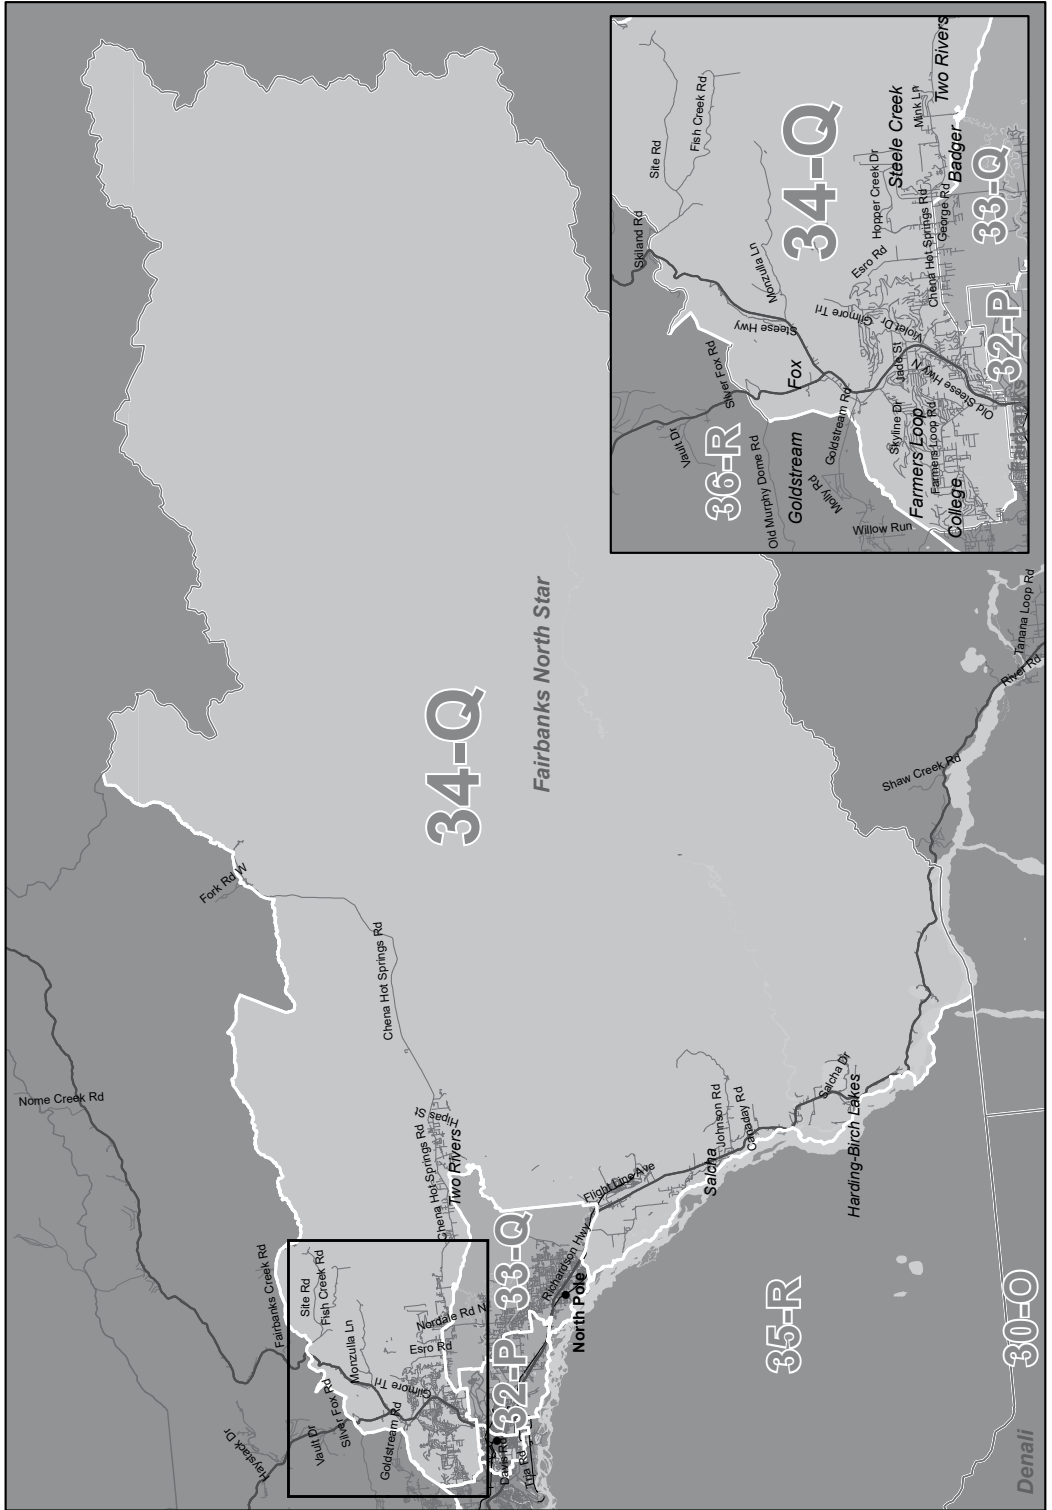

Alaska's best days are still ahead if we can put the people in charge and the government in support. If we reverse those roles, our best days will be behind us. I would be honored by your vote this November.

OTHER:

I started working at Cape Canaveral supporting radar/telemetry systems. Most of my career has been designing thermal and laser targeting systems for the U.S. military, starting my own engineering firm in 2006. I have travelled across the country testing at military installations, including Ft. Greely. After coming to Alaska, I fell in love with the outdoors, the people, and state politics. I have passion to support our community through my service and believe my knowledge of the legislative process gives me an advantage to focus on the priorities of our district and to ensure our core values are not infringed upon.

STATEMENT:

I am the "Common-Sense Conservative" for House District 34. Listed below are highlights of my positions.

FISCAL RESPONSIBILITY – Maintaining a reasonable, sustainable budget is key to Alaska's long-term stability. Prioritizing key infrastructure needs to be maintained while not negatively impacting Alaskans. To do this, we need to fight any efforts to implement new taxes and cut unnecessary spending.

SMALLER GOVERNMENT – The government should have a limited role in providing minimal services or regulations, especially in the private sector.

PRIVATE ECONOMY – Entrepreneurs and small businesses are the backbone of the Alaskan dream. Our government should not restrict our business owners from unjust regulations but pave the road for successful ventures.

NO NEW TAXES ON ALASKAN WORKERS – We do not need an income tax in Alaska. We need to ensure equitable taxation on all profiting off Alaska.

RESPONSIBLE RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT – The expanse of diverse resources in Alaska is unlike any other state. I believe we need to responsibly expand sustainable uses of our public lands that offer billions in economic opportunity.

FULL STATUTORY PFD – All Alaskans should be paid the full statutory PFD and not have what is in the statutes reallocated at the will of the Government.

SECURE ALASKA STATE RIGHTS FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT – The federal government needs to respect our state's rights and should not be able to unreasonably influence our liberties.

SUPPORT 2nd AMENDMENT RIGHTS – These rights shall not be infringed upon.

OTHER:

Fairbanks born and raised, I'm proud of the work we've done together. Growing up and working here I've learned the value of hard work, supporting your neighbors and fighting for what's right. That's what I did serving on the Education and Resources Committees while chairing the Transportation Committee and the Special Committee on Tourism and Economic Development. Three years ago, I married the love of my life, and now we have an 18-month old daughter and two dogs. When not in Juneau, I work for Alaska's educators; as a product of our public schools, I've learned to stay humble, listen and be willing to work with any Alaskan.

STATEMENT:

I'm proud of my record representing Fairbanks these past four years. Together, we put Fairbanks first and protected Alaska's future. I believe that if we put political parties aside, and solve problems as Alaskans, we'll be able to achieve great things. That's what I've done, and that's what I'll continue to do if you re-elect me in November.

I've worked with Alaskans from every corner of our state to find fiscally responsible solutions to develop our resources, build our economy, create Alaskan jobs, and protect our students and schools. Perhaps most importantly, I've stood strong against raids on the permanent fund, protected the future of the dividend, and held off the need for taxes.

I've also worked across the aisle to help pass important legislation. This includes: Helping reform our electric utilities so they have to work together, lowering energy costs; initiating the industrial hemp industry, starting the first ever operating funds for mapping Alaska's minerals; creating the first ever small business research grants; funding forest fire prevention projects; passing legislation to support our military families; passing legislation to lower heating costs for homes and businesses; increasing funding for education; protecting pre-kindergarten funding; helping to expand the WWAMI program, and so much more.

I went to Juneau to help make things better and solve problems. I believe we have done that. Together, we will make Alaska an even better place. I'd appreciate your vote this November.

Frank has a proven and consistent record of upholding conservative Republican values while serving on the FNSB Assembly. As a long time community member of Fairbanks, Frank is an established Alaskan with strong family values. He has been married to his wife, Harmony, for 27 years. They have 5 children, all born at FMH, two daughters in law, and one granddaughter. He has displayed servant leadership in our community by volunteering at food pantries, churches, and local youth sports. Frank is proud to call Fairbanks home.

STATEMENT:

I believe in freedom and opportunities for all Alaskans.

I have lived in Alaska for 43 years. In that time, I have developed countless relationships with people across our state and within the local communities. Alaska is full of unique neighborhoods each having its own needs and interests. I listen to residents and hear their concerns. It is my goal to address each specific issue in a fiscally responsible way; whether it is a generator and lift for an emergency evacuation point in Salcha, or an ambulance and fire station in Pleasant Valley.

Every Alaskan is important to me and I want to continue promoting healthy and renewable growth throughout the time I serve Alaska. I know the importance of strong family values and community as my five children were all born and raised in Fairbanks. Having the right fundamental priorities in place is necessary for the continued growth and development of each neighborhood and every Alaskan.

Priorities:

- Promote economic growth
- Prioritize needs versus wants in state spending
- Promote the efficient, measured use of state resources
- Uphold family values
- Uphold individual freedoms
- Full PFD according to statutes
- Defend Alaska from federal overreach
- Protect our 2nd Amendment rights

STATEMENT:
In 2012, 2014, and 2018, I was honored to be elected to represent the people of Senate District C. I am running for re-election and am asking voters to #PickClickBishop for Senate District R.

I am still motivated to help build Alaska's communities through hard work, straight talk, and common sense.

Alaska's economy is primarily driven by oil, gas, mining, timber, fishing, and tourism. We need to assure that those industries thrive now and into the future; continue to work with education and industry to improve Alaska hire and keep hard-earned dollars in Alaska; help Alaska businesses create jobs to hire skilled Alaskans; and, have strong workforce development programs so Alaskans have the training needed to compete in our job market.

One of my greatest enjoyments as a senator is visiting with constituents. You are key to my success and are factored into every decision I make. Thank you to all who have emailed, called, or have stopped by my office. Your input is immensely valuable. Your opinions sit highly with me and help me in my decision-making.

I would appreciate your vote and, if re-elected, I will continue to vote for what is right for Alaska and Alaskans, my family and yours.

STATEMENT:
I am a conservative, especially in fiscal matters. I believe in balanced budgets and living within our means. If we want more, we must first grow our revenue with investments, resource development, land sales, leases, etc., NOT by taxing the people more with an income tax.

We should conserve and be good stewards of our land and resources but we should use and develop them simultaneously as mentioned in our Alaska Constitution. I believe in conserving government structures, principles and ideas that have worked well for thousands of years, yet adapt with modern technology and added information and research.
Scientific facts and common sense that we've known for thousands of years are eroding and must be defended. Conservatives believe that until new ideas are tried and proven for lengthy periods of time you don't pass them as law or mandates and then see how it works. Stability is much better than experimental economics and policies.

I support the full statutory PFD, it is the people's money regardless of what they choose to spend it on. I am pro-life, you can't have "Liberty" and pursue happiness if your "Life" is taken from you before birth. We must protect our unborn children and women simultaneously, it can be done. I am pro family, religious liberty and pro 2nd Amendment, it should not be infringed. I believe in representing and listening to all people in my district and won't be unreachable or apathetic in my duty serving you the people of district R.

OTHER:
My roots in Alaska go back to my grandparents, who moved from the Lower 48 in the 70’s. I grew up in Alaska, and though I’ve traveled around the country Alaska always feels like coming back home. Alaska is a wonderful state and I am grateful to live in it.

STATEMENT:
As Alaskans we find ourselves standing on the edge of a storm. Problems loom large across the nation - food and fuel price increases and shortages, a multi decade financial bubble that is ready to pop, inflation - and with our unique position in Alaska we will experience these problems more acutely than much of the country. How Alaska handles itself in the coming years will determine whether or not the state will come out of the other side of these troubles intact.

The permanent fund must be safeguarded against financial catastrophe because the funds within it belong to Alaskans without exception. State land must be opened up for private ownership by individuals, so that it may be used for food and fuel. Federally held lands that are legally owed to the State of Alaska must be taken back into State custody. Our abundant natural resources must be available to ease the troubles of all Alaskans, not out of state commercial interests.

The goal of the State should be to get out of the way so that people can help themselves. No property taxes forcing people out of their homes, no firearms laws preventing people from exercising their rights, no home heating emissions regulations forcing people to choose between freezing or starving.

We are staring hard times in the face, but if we stand together as Alaskans we can make it through - together.

STATEMENT:

I am running for State House because I want to lead towards a future where Alaskan families, businesses, and communities can thrive.

I am a fourth-generation Alaskan with family roots in the Interior. I moved to Fairbanks from my hometown of Anchorage to attend the University of Alaska Fairbanks more than a decade ago. I have been a substitute teacher in the Fairbanks school district, a counselor with the Rural Alaska Honors Institute, and the Executive Director of the Tanana Valley Watershed Association. For the last five years, I have served as the Chief of Staff for Representative Adam Wool.

My platform has three central goals:

- Promoting Alaska’s Economic Future by growing the Permanent Fund, finding efficiencies in government, and opening pathways for new industry and development.
- Preserving Educational Opportunities by increasing the Base Student Allocation, fixing Alaska’s broken retirement system, and providing stable funding for K-12 Education and the University of Alaska.
- Protecting the Health, Safety, and Wellbeing of Alaskans by funding public safety and wrap-around services, protecting access to reproductive healthcare and a woman’s right to choose, and combating the mental health crisis in Alaska.

Alaska is at a crossroads. We need leadership that will exercise political courage, civility, and moderation. Instead of scraping by from year to year, we need to build Alaska for what we can become.

I will bring experienced and energized leadership for West Fairbanks to the Legislature. I am - All In For Alaska - and I am ready to serve as your next Representative.

STATEMENT:

I'm Kevin McKinley, the only candidate with common sense solutions running for State House District 35. I had the privilege of growing up in Kotzebue and I know the grit it takes to thrive in our state. As a young man, I took that same grit and determination and began my entrepreneurial career. I am proud to say that the business has flourished, not just in Fairbanks but around Alaska. As a businessman and a community volunteer, I know that government policies matter. That's why the choice is clear. Firefighting-Passed HB 209, to rebuild our village crews and keep them employed during non-fire times.

I will continue to support our military in Alaska as well as our veterans.

I support the PCE program for rural Alaska/increased the KW limit as well as solutions to lower energy costs.

I support a fiscal plan for Alaska, which includes a constitutional spending cap, PFD, new revenues, budget reductions, and a plan that prioritizes private business over government.

I will continue to be the voice for rural Alaska. I will fight to protect our ability to hunt, fish and trap. I will make sure the management of our fish and game takes priority above all else and we solve our fishery problem in the Yukon and other rivers. Ballot Measure No. 1 Constitutional Convention Question Shall there be a constitutional convention? <input type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No

Legislative Affairs Agency Summary

This question relates to a call for a constitutional convention. At the convention the state constitution may be amended or revised, subject to approval by the voters. Under the state constitution, the voters must have the chance to vote on the question of whether there should be a constitutional convention if there has not been a convention during the last ten years. There has not been a convention in the last ten years. This question asks voters to say whether there should be a constitutional convention.

Ballot Measure No. 1

Constitutional Convention Question

STATEMENT IN SUPPORT

Yes! Our beloved state has been captured by massive political corruption. The amendments that might have been proposed for simpler solutions to a convention have been rejected for years by the legislature, while the judiciary has invented new unconstitutional powers for themselves.

1. The Alaska PFD must be constitutionalized.
2. The Judicial Council, which appoints judges and is rigged in favor of lawyers, needs to be discarded.
3. We must reject the violations of the federal constitution that were imposed upon us at statehood. While we must continue to guarantee native lands, Alaska was forced to include in our constitution Article 12, Section 12. This gave the federal government property that has no basis in the U.S. Constitution, which violates Article I, Section 8, clause 17, plus the 10th Amendment. Having the federal government own 65% of our state completely suffocates Alaska's ability to become economically prosperous and self-supporting.
4. Over the years a power grab by the judiciary has actually overthrown our state constitution. They have seized the power of the purse, the governor's line-item veto and the legislature's ability to override it. They invented the "duty" to amend the constitution through case law opinions. The courts have seized the definition of privacy, which is specifically reserved to the legislature in Article 1, Section 22.

Both the executive and legislative branches have had the power to halt this, but it is merely implied.

5. Therefore, the constitution needs to be more strongly worded so that citizens, governors and legislators will understand that the judiciary's power to interpret the constitution must be shared. As it was said in Federalist #78:

"The judiciary has no influence over either the enforcement or the purse; no direction either of the strength or of the wealth of the society. It may truly be said to have neither force nor will, but merely judgment; and must ultimately depend upon the aid of the executive arm even for enforcement of its judgments."

6. In addition, election integrity must be addressed so that machines and computers can never again be used, and that chain-of-custody is protected by citizen poll-watchers.

A constitutional convention is a risk, but Alaskans are risk-takers and we cannot allow contrived fears to rule us. If this ballot measure should pass, we must insist the following: That the delegates not be sitting members of the legislature. They must be Alaskans of at least 5 years or more continuous residency, and they must be chosen by "town hall" type meetings through each precinct and district, not by expensive campaigns and electioneering.

Our current constitution reads that all political power is inherent in the people, government originates from the people, is instituted for the good of the people as a whole, and is founded on their will only.

This may be our last chance to do that.

In the name of liberty for ourselves and our future generations, please vote "Yes".

Ballot Measure No. 1

Constitutional Convention Question

STATEMENT IN OPPOSITION

Every 10 years, Alaskans are asked whether we should hold a constitutional convention. Each time, Alaskans have strongly rejected that question. This year Alaskans should join a growing coalition from across the political spectrum in once again voting “No” on a constitutional convention.

A constitutional convention is unnecessary, expensive, and dangerous. Not only would it open up our entire founding document to wholesale rewrite, it would create years of economic and regulatory uncertainty in our state. Opening up Alaska’s entire Constitution could lead to unpredictable changes and open a Pandora’s box of hot-button issues like access to natural resource, taxes, abortion, guns rights, gender and sexual orientation, the Permanent Fund, land and wildlife management and so much more.

Because no state in the nation has held a state constitutional convention in over 36 years, special interests from outside of Alaska would seize this opportunity to make Alaska the testing ground for their political and partisan agendas. Exposing our founding document to years of political infighting, particularly in the face of growing divide in our nation, is the last thing hardworking Alaska families, businesses and communities need.

Alaska’s Constitution has served our state well for over 60 years. Our state’s founders included a separate, well-devised, and transparent amendment process to make targeted changes to our Constitution; a process that has worked well for Alaskans on 40 separate occasions.

However, a convention would open up the entire Constitution for unlimited revision. Even more concerning: convention delegates would be selected via a special election with zero restrictions on campaign contributions. And because sitting legislators in Juneau would be eligible to run, there is little assurance that a convention would result in meaningful changes. A constitutional convention would ultimately lead to a multi-year, costly and contentious process that would distract from the real work of addressing our state’s shared challenges.

Hundreds of individuals representing Alaska’s geographic and political diversity have formed to formally oppose a convention. This coalition represents a broad group of Alaskans who often disagree on issues facing our state: business and labor leaders, resource development champions and conservationists, Republicans and Democrats. But we all agree: a constitutional convention would be unnecessary, expensive, and dangerous for Alaska.

Holding a constitutional convention carries great risk, with little or no potential reward. Alaskans should work to protect our founding document and oppose the constitutional convention this November by voting no on Ballot Measure 1.

Judges on the Ballot

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluations and Recommendations

Why are judges on the ballot?

The Alaska Constitution and state law require all state judges to appear periodically on the ballot for approval or disapproval by the voters (referred to as “judicial retention elections”). This power and duty of the people to vote on judicial retention is a critical part of Alaska’s judicial system.

What information is available about judges on the ballot?

Judicial retention elections are non-partisan, and judges are not allowed to campaign unless someone actively opposes their bid to stay in office. To give voters information about judges’ performance, state law requires the Judicial Council to evaluate each judge on the ballot, and to make this information available to voters. The Judicial Council publishes a summary of its information in this Election Pamphlet, and posts the judges’ complete performance reports on its web site.

How did the Alaska Judicial Council evaluate the judges on the ballot?

The Judicial Council collected and analyzed information from many different sources and viewpoints for a full picture of each judge’s performance. The information included reviews from attorneys and other justice system professionals, reviews from jurors, input from the public, and analysis of other performance indicators. The Judicial Council then used the information to determine whether the judges met performance standards in the following areas:

- Integrity
- Impartiality & fairness
- Temperament
- Legal ability
- Diligence and administrative skills

How are judges chosen in Alaska?

Under the Alaska Constitution, the selection of judges is a two-part process involving the Alaska Judicial Council and the governor.

The Alaska Judicial Council is a non-partisan citizens’ commission. The members of the Judicial Council review applications of people who want to be judges and nominate the best-qualified among them. The governor then appoints a judge from the Judicial Council’s list. This system is called “merit selection.”

Merit selection was chosen by the framers of Alaska’s constitution, after considerable study and debate, as the best way to select and appoint the most qualified judges and to minimize the role of partisan politics in the judiciary.

Alaska Judicial Council finding:
All judges met or exceeded performance standards

What were the findings from the evaluations of judges on the 2022 ballot?

The Judicial Council found that all judges on the ballot met or exceeded performance standards for their positions. The Judicial Council therefore recommends a “YES” vote on all judges on the 2022 ballot to be retained for another term in office.

The Judicial Council recommends a “YES” vote on all judges standing for retention

Please review the following pages for the Judicial Council’s summary of each judge’s performance.

Who serves on the Alaska Judicial Council?

Members of the Judicial Council are citizen volunteers who come from different areas of Alaska. The Alaska Constitution sets the Judicial Council membership:

- » Three members who are not attorneys are appointed by the governor and confirmed by a majority of each house of the legislature;
 - » Three attorney members elected by their peers in an advisory ballot, who are appointed by the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association (an entity created and authorized by the Alaska Legislature); and
 - » The Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court, who serves as chair. (The Chief Justice votes only when needed to break a tie.)
 - The Constitution requires all appointments to the Council be made with “due consideration to area representation and without regard to political affiliation.”
 - Members serve staggered terms. They receive no financial compensation for their work other than reimbursement for travel expenses.
- Current Alaska Judicial Council Members

Patricia Collins, attorney member from Juneau.

Lynne Gallant, non-attorney member from Anchorage.

Jonathon Katcher, attorney member from Anchorage.

Alaska Judicial Council Evaluation

Judge Bethany S. Harbison, Alaska Court of Appeals

The Alaska Judicial Council finds Judge Harbison met or exceeded performance standards, and recommends a “YES” vote for another term in office

Judge Harbison was appointed to the Alaska Court of Appeals in November of 2018. She is one of four judges on this court, which handles appeals of criminal cases. This is Judge Harbison’s first retention evaluation as a Court of Appeals judge.

Summary: After conducting its performance review, the Judicial Council determined that Judge Harbison met or exceeded performance standards on all criteria, including legal ability, integrity, impartiality/fairness, temperament, diligence, and administrative skills. The Council further concluded that Judge Harbison complied with judicial ethics standards.

The Alaska Judicial Council therefore recommends a “yes” vote to retain Judge Harbison in office.

Survey ratings: Attorneys who appeared before Judge Harbison gave her excellent reviews, as did court employees. The chart shows some of the survey ratings received by Judge Harbison. Complete survey ratings are available at www.ajc.state.ak.us.

Professional activities: The Council’s review of Judge Harbison’s professional activities showed significant contributions to the administration of justice and her community. Judge Harbison made contributions in the areas of committee and work group service, community outreach, teaching, and youth activities. Superior Court Judge

Kevin M. Saxby, Third Judicial District

MAILING ADDRESS: 825 W. Fourth Avenue

AGE: 65

PLACE OF BIRTH: Hinsdale, IL

SPOUSE’S NAME: Mei-Ching Saxby

Nathan Saxby

LENGTH OF RESIDENCY IN ALASKA: 36 years

ALASKAN COMMUNITIES LIVED IN:
Anchorage 1986 to present

EDUCATION:
Lake Zurich High School, Colorado State University,
University of Wyoming

POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS:
Assistant Attorney General, Senior Assistant Attorney General

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS:
Associate, Bradbury, Bliss and Riordan

SERVICE ORGANIZATIONS MEMBERSHIPS:
Boy Scouts of America, Assistant Scoutmaster

SPECIAL INTERESTS:
Church, outdoors, wood and leather working, reading,
travel, house repair

OTHER:
I worked construction and forestry jobs before practicing law. Then 3 years in private practice and 23 in the Alaska A.G.’s office. Now, I’ve been a judge for over ten years, handling mostly criminal trials. I spend most free time doing house repair, with family, or on my boat.

STATEMENT:
In ten-plus years of presiding mostly over felony criminal and juvenile delinquency cases, I have seen thousands of grievous wrongs and ruined lives, on all sides. To my ongoing dismay, most of these wounds are not fixable through our courts. But judges can ensure that all who come before us are treated with patience and dignity.
And we must guarantee that rules are always applied fairly and equally. These have been, and remain, my primary commitments to Alaskans.

Many of you have served on my juries. Thank you. Our justice system would founder without citizens doing the hard work of deciding guilt or innocence. I believe passionately in the basic fairness of our courts although, of course, they are not perfect. Judges play important roles in maintaining fairness by, among other things deciding what evidence jurors may hear and base their decisions on, based on the vast body of law laid down throughout our history. Since my last retention, I have gained years of experience which has, I believe, made me more useful to the people of Alaska and a better judge. On behalf of judges, I can honestly say that your views are important. I maintain that all comments must be reviewed, and even the most negative should cause self-examination. These retention elections are one of the rare times that judges get input on how the public thinks we’re doing. So, don’t hold back. Thanks again for your contributions to justice.

STATEMENT:
I was appointed to the Palmer Superior Court in 2019. I knew this position would be challenging, given that Palmer judges have the highest caseloads in Alaska, a fact complicated by the pandemic and the significant structural damage suffered by our courthouse after the January 2022 windstorm. I have worked to adopt more efficient practices to address timeliness issues in Palmer, and to adapt our procedures to ensure access to our court even in these difficult times.

All of the Superior Court Judges in Palmer have a mixed caseload, meaning we handle child custody and divorce matters, Child-in-Need-of-Aid cases, felony-level criminal matters, and other miscellaneous civil cases. I believe strongly in being prepared in advance of all of my hearings so I have an understanding of the applicable law and the issues at hand. I strive to ensure that all parties have an opportunity to provide me the information I need to best understand their position and to make an informed decision. I am exceedingly grateful to live in and serve the Mat-Su Valley community.

OTHER:
I grew up and attended law school in the Boston area. During the summer of 1993, I interned at the Alaska Office of Public Advocacy. After graduating, I returned to Alaska to continue my career, as a law clerk, public defender, consumer protection and child protection attorney. I married my husband, Adam, in 2003. I worked as a domestic violence supervisor, trial supervisor, and Deputy Municipal Prosecutor for the Municipal Prosecutor’s Office.

STATEMENT:
I love Alaska and have made this special place my home. When I arrived in Alaska in 1994 as a young lawyer, I immediately became enamored with the friendliness, the spirit, and the wildness of Alaska.

For me, it was a daunting task to go to law school and then overcome the challenges of litigating. So, I recognize that coming to court is an uncomfortable experience for many individuals. In the past 20 plus years, I have had the opportunity to have served as a law clerk, public defender, prosecutor, juror, and judge. These experiences have exposed me to the different aspects of the court system in Alaska, and I believe that the Alaska Court System strives to be fair to all people, whatever their backgrounds. As a judge in district court for the past 11 years, I have seen that a lot of people appearing in my courtroom are dealing with significant struggles and conflicts. Every day, I endeavor to listen and respond to people, with dignity and respect, as they confront difficult situations. I feel fortunate to have served as a state court judge, thus far, and hope to continue to have the honor of serving the public as a district court judge.

STATEMENT:

I have lived in Alaska since 1972. After attending college and law school, I returned to Alaska because of my strong desire to stay in Alaska and serve the community where I was raised. As an Assistant District Attorney and Assistant Attorney General in Anchorage, Utqiagvik, Fairbanks, and Palmer, I became familiar with the issues that face all Alaskans when they become involved with our justice system. This experience has enabled me to deal efficiently with the high volume of cases in the Anchorage district court. In criminal cases, I strive to make sentencing decisions that meet both the needs of the community and the victim, as well as addressing a defendant's rehabilitation. In civil cases, I listen carefully to the parties and take the time to reach decisions that are well reasoned and just.

Over the years, I, along with my fellow judges, have continued to look at the court system to see where we could make improvements in serving the public from altering the format and times of our hearings to keeping the court system safely open during the pandemic.

I will continue to look for improvements for the court system, and I will continue to treat everyone who becomes involved in our justice system fairly and with respect. I have greatly enjoyed both serving and being a member of this community, and I hope to continue serving as a judge in Anchorage.

Assistant District Attorney, 2010 - 2014
Magistrate Judge, 2014 - 2019

STATEMENT:
Serving the people of the Third Judicial District in the great State of Alaska has been the greatest honor of my life. I was born in Boston, into a large family of modest means. My parents each worked multiple jobs to make ends meet. My siblings and I were given responsibility at an early age, and expected to take care of ourselves and each other. In my lifetime, I have worked many jobs: house cleaner, construction worker, dish washer, busboy, landscaper, patent attorney, Magistrate and District Court Judge. I have also been a small business owner providing services for people with disabilities. Working in a broad range of jobs helped pay for college, and gave me an appreciation for my education. It also gave me an education that you cannot get in school.

As a Judge, I have seen how crucial the role of the court is in the community. For instance, in Kenai, the Alaska Court System has partnered with the Kenaitze Tribal Court to form the Henu’ Community Wellness Court, providing desperately needed resources for those struggling with substance abuse issues. This, and other community programs, benefits offenders, but also results in reduced recidivism which benefits the entire community. Although most people rarely interact with the court, it is important that the court is seen as providing fair and impartial justice for all. I work hard every day to ensure that I treat all litigants fairly, with respect, and giving each an honest opportunity to be heard.

Superior Court Judge

Thomas I. Temple, Fourth Judicial District

MAILING ADDRESS: 101 Lacey Street
Fairbanks, AK 99701

OTHER:

Judge Temple enlisted in the Marines at age seventeen, serving as a machine gunner during the Gulf War.

Judge Temple then worked his way through college and law school, while serving in the Army National Guard.

In 2001, Judge Temple moved to Alaska and served as a prosecutor in Fairbanks, Anchorage, and Utqiagvik, before entering private practice with the Satterberg Law Offices in Fairbanks, focusing on criminal defense and civil litigation. As a trial attorney, Judge Temple tried cases in Fairbanks, Anchorage, Unalaska, Utqiagvik, Delta Junction, and Homer.

Judge Temple and his wife of thirty years, Amy, have five children, ages thirteen through twenty-one. Judge Temple considers his family to be his finest personal accomplishment.

Judge Temple is known for his love of Alaska- a love for the spirit of its people and a love for all the joy and challenges that come with living in the Last Frontier.

STATEMENT:

I want to continue to serve as a judge for the following reasons.

I want to preserve liberty by ensuring the independence and integrity of our judiciary. An independent, fair, and impartial judiciary is essential to our system of justice. We expect our judges to be honest and diligent. We trust them to ensure fair trials, to protect the rights of all litigants, and to oversee the orderly and efficient flow of justice. I remain committed to these principles.

I want to be an instrument of justice- to be a part of seeing the right thing done. I remain humbled by the opportunity and responsibility to administer justice every day.

I want to ensure that the Rule of Law is upheld. Indeed, no one is above the law. I will continue to ensure that the law is fairly applied to all people and institutions.

Daily, I reflect on how I might become a better judge. I have come to the conclusion that a judge must seek wisdom, discernment, courage, and patience. Socrates defined the qualities of a judge as "to hear courteously, to answer wisely, to consider soberly, and to decide impartially." I will continue to strive to display these qualities in my work.

I promise to continue to labor hard, to respect and honor the judicial office, and to maintain and enhance the public's confidence in our legal system.

APFC Mission:
To manage and invest the assets of the Alaska Permanent Fund and other funds designated by law.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

For the benefit of all Alaskans, the investment and management of the Alaska Permanent Fund must be held to the highest of standards – those of fiduciary duty, uncompromising integrity, and straightforward accountability. As fiduciaries and stewards of the Alaska Permanent Fund, the Board of Trustees serves to guide the investment management of the Fund to maximize risk-adjusted returns over a long horizon. Our strategic objectives ensure that the Alaska Permanent Fund is able to serve its three primary functions: savings, producing income, and providing revenue stability to the State of Alaska.

As a savings account, we uphold the vision that established the Fund in the Alaska Constitution. Producing income is accomplished by APFC's expert investors and professional staff with guidance from the Board. Revenue stability for Alaska is achieved through the promotion of a well-designed system of rules and clearly defined spending policies to provide support for Alaskans today and ensure that the Fund is safeguarded and protected for future generations.

We on the Board of Trustees will continue to be ever-vigilant in maintaining a diversified portfolio, supporting a rules-based transfer methodology, and achieving our long-term return objectives for the benefit of Alaskans today and in the future.

FUND VALUES AND RETURNS (Since Inception)

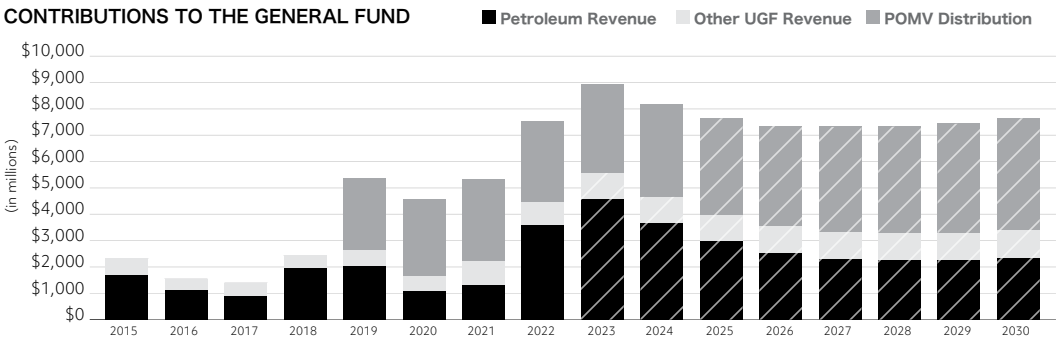

REVENUE GENERATED FOR ALASKA

Through the value-based formula for Fund withdrawals of 5% annually, $3.4 billion is available in FY23 for the Legislature to appropriate in support of the State's annual budget. This established and reliable withdrawal structure known as the Percent of Market Value (POMV) has long been supported by the Board of Trustees to protect the Fund's long-term value and to provide a known and sustainable payout. The POMV draw is calculated by taking 5% of the average market value of the Alaska Permanent Fund for the first five of the preceding six fiscal years.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE GENERAL FUND

RULES-BASED SUSTAINABILITY

As the Alaska Permanent Fund's earnings now contribute the majority of the State's unrestricted revenues, APFC Trustees continue to support and reinforce the rules intended to protect the Fund for the long term. A rules-based methodology for deposits into and withdrawals from the Permanent Fund can ensure a genuinely renewable financial resource for the benefit of all generations of Alaskans.

Adherence to Rules: A system of well-designed rules and formulaic calculations promotes sustainability and stability of real growth through Principal deposits, while enabling the Corporation to organize investment policies allowing for prudent investment of the Fund. Clearly defined saving and spending policies must be embedded in any system of rules.

Ensure Sustainability: Requires annual formulaic withdrawals from the ERA at an amount that the long-term balance of the account is able to support. The Board recommends instituting a process that would require periodic review of draw assumptions as market conditions change.

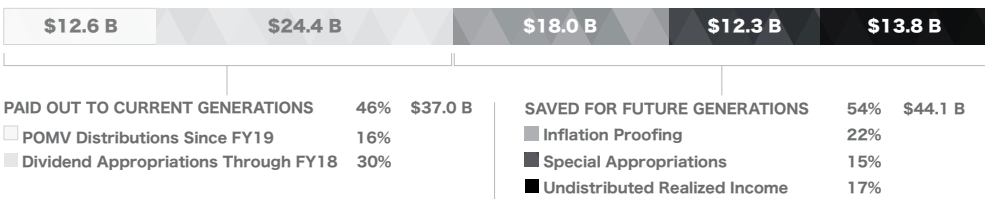

Automatic Inflation Proofing: Given the Permanent Fund's current two-account structure with investment earnings moving into the ERA, annual inflation proofing ensures that the purchasing power of the Principal is maintained. Ultimately, combining these two accounts into a single classic endowment structure would eliminate the need for annual inflation proofing and ensure that the Fund maintains its real value for future generations.

Promote Real Growth: Results in more income and thus higher sustainable draws in the future; it is necessary to preserve and protect intergenerational wealth as Alaska continues the extraction of its finite natural resources.

ALASKA PUBLIC OFFICES COMMISSION

WHY DOES APOC EXIST?

The mission of APOC is to encourage the public's confidence in their elected and appointed public officials by administering and enforcing Alaska's disclosure statutes and publishing financial information about election campaigns, public officials, lobbyists and lobbyist employers.

LAWS ADMINISTERED BY APOC

APOC administers and enforces four disclosure laws; AS 15.13 Campaign Disclosure, AS 24.45 Lobbying, AS 39.50 Public Official Financial Disclosure, and AS 24.60 Legislative Financial Disclosure. These laws require the disclosure of information that enables citizens to trace the influence of private interests on public decision-making. This disclosure helps to limit privileged influence through revealing special interests and exposing conflicts of interest. The laws are designed to develop accountability in government by giving the public access to information to judge the credentials and performance of public officials and candidates for public offices. The disclosure reports filed with APOC are public records.

WHO IS THE COMMISSION?

The two political parties or political groups with the largest number of registered voters at the time of the most recent gubernatorial election each nominate two commission members. The four members nominate a fifth member from applicants from the general public. The governor appoints and the legislature confirms the nominations. Terms are for five years, with a different term expiring each year. The Commission currently consists of two Republican Party members, two Democratic Party members, and one public member.

HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

This agency is the public's source of information on all aspects of the disclosure laws. We are committed to fulfilling our mission by providing the public with information. Most of the information can be accessed through APOC's website. You can find out who has contributed to a particular ballot group, which political action committees are spending the most, which lobbyists are working for which employers, who is contributing to candidates and how much is being given and spent to influence voters. APOC works with the public and those who file financial reports to make the disclosure process effective, efficient, and transparent.

Visit our website or contact our office for information about how to locate the information required by the laws that APOC administers. This is the public's agency and we welcome the opportunity to make APOC work for you.

VOTE BOLDLY YOUTH ARTWORK CONTEST

2022 “I Voted” Stickers & Official Election Pamphlet Covers

The Division invited Alaska students between the ages 5 and 18 years old to participate in a design contest for a chance to have their artwork featured on the cover of the 2022 Official Election Pamphlet (OEP) or the 2022 special edition “I Voted” General Election stickers. The contest was part of the division’s efforts to educate voters about Alaska’s new election system. The public voted for winners via a Pick One Primary Election where the top four vote getters moved on to a Ranked Choice Voting General Election using the Division’s educational mock election app, created by RankedVote.

“I Voted” sticker submissions were from youth ages 5 - 13 years old and one winner from each region was chosen. OEP submissions were from youth ages 14 - 18 years old and five winners were chosen. Students were asked to design something that expressed what they think it means for Alaskans to be fearless and have the confidence to Vote Boldly.
